KING MACBETH ON DRUGS?

Original footage of the banquet

Is our King Macbeth actually suffering from occasional visions or does he have a problem with drug addiction? This weeks banquet in Macbeth's castle didn't turn out to be a festive gathering but rather an event full of embarrassment for our king. Even though it ended quickly when Lady Macbeth send all the guests home after her husband was allegedly having visions, everyone is gossiping about what happened.

After greeting his guests on his banquet, Macbeth refused to take a seat because he freaked out about something he saw right there. The public is saying that our king has been acting suspicious lately and this event proves it once again. Witnesses said that Macbeth was freaking out about something no one else saw so he obviously was imagining things. When his wife Lady Macbeth stepped in to stop him since he was embarassing himself he seemingly freaked out even more, so she had to try calming him down. At this point the guests were already suspecting that something was off. Rumours came up that Macbeth has a problem with drugs that made him see things since having hallucinations is a known consequence of various drugs. Lady Macbeth however said her husband is suffering from these visions since he was a child which made the whole situation even more strange since Macbeth has never been seen in this kind of state before. When talking to her husband Lady Macbeth seemed upset which proves that whatever happened is a problem and doesn't seem to be something that occasionally happens. But all of a sudden Macbeth started talking to his company and brushed off what just happened by saying that his closest friends know him like this. They however were confused as to what was going on just like the rest of he guests were.

Then once again the king started having visions and even started talking to what he saw and askede it to go away. Like he was talking to a ghost. To stop this desaster Lady Macbeth all of a sudden sent all guests home.

This banquet brought up some rumours among the poeple who were there that evening but the information was also delivered to people all over Great Britain. Everybody knows by now that our king brought ridiculous behaviour to the banquet which made many of his people lose respect for him because they see him as a coward and even a drug addict now.

WHERE IS THE ROYAL BABY?

A well known couple, has come up to everyone's radar lately. Not only because of all the rumours of drug abuse and an unhealthy marriage, but rather because of the absence of a little prince or princess in the palace. We are talking about our beloved king and his wife, Macbeth and Lady Macbeth. Lots of speculations were made in the last months after the sudden passing of the late king Duncan and the unexpected crowning of Macbeth. But now that Scotland is blessed with a new ruler, everyone is impatiently awaiting a heir to the throne. But why do we have to wait so long for the happy news? An insider, who wants to remain anonymous, gave us exclusive insights into the life of the royal couple. According to him, the marriage of the Macbeths has not been as rosy as it once was for some time. With Macbeth being away fighting in the war against the Norwegian king under king Duncan's reign, Lady Macbeth must have gotten quite lonely in the castle at Inverness without her husband. Our source has confirmed that Lady Macbeth was often seen sneaking out of the castle and returning in the morning. Only last month she was spotted in town with a mysterious man entering a hotel together.

Is that the reason why there has been no sign of a royal baby? Or is there a different reason behind the secret meetings between the queen and the mysterious man? Whatever it is, we will definitely keep in touch with our source and give you weekly updates on the situation.

THE TOXIC ROYAL COUPLE

The previous events in the kingdom are all confusing and unbelievable. Once Macbeth was a noble man, the thane of Glamis and thane of Cawdor, a hero who won wars and fights for our kingdom and previous king. But what happened to him? How did he evolved to such a tyrant when he became king?

The answer is short: Lady Macbeth!

We all noticed how Macbeth became more evil day by day. After he was such a hero for the kingdom it appears kind of unrealistic that he went throughout this change on his own because of himself.

We interviewed servants which were on the site and served the royal couple through all the time Macbeth changed and before that.

After bringing them closer to the topic they said, there were rumors about Lady Macbeth manipulating Macbeth. These rumors said she even had forced him to murder king Duncan, what would mean that our present king Macbeth killed our previous king Duncan!

Lady Macbeth allegedly had said to him that he didn't behave like a real man and questioned his masculinity.

Otherwise Macbeth wasn't the best husband either. He didn't really cared about Lady Macbeth and her well-being. When she started sleepwalking ,because of the immense pressure, he didn't care and more rumors say he even started sleeping in an other room!

Lady Macbeth also suffered from depression and Macbeth wasn't helping out and didn't even care about this also.

All in one both of them weren't good for each other and there relationship drove them to there present conditions.

We hope you all won't ever get in such a toxic relationship like this! (Eva)

THE MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE OF BANQUO

Recently, the banquet was held in the king's castle, to which everyone was invited. Everyone except Banquo was there. No one has seen or spoken to him since. It's like he dropped off the face of the earth and won't reappear. Where did Banquo go? Why did he disappear?

Our reporters have been investigating this question and looking for information. Banquo was apparently seen trying to escape his property as he was driving away in his car. Nobody knows where he went. Was he trying to escape from something? Some people saw Banquo and his wife arguing in front of their estate. He may have done a sinful act or something bad that he now wants to run away from.

It is claimed that he left his family for an affair. What a disgrace would it be when he got her pregnant and now just leaves his family just because he isn't able to prevent!

It's a mystery why worn ropes are hanging in his carport. He probably didn't want to get into trouble because of his affair. In order to eliminate these problems, he may have hung up his affair so that no one would know about it. Now he's probably trying to hide the body anywhere in the forest or something and that's why he was driving away with his car alone!

We are all confused about what is going on these days but we'll solve this mystery. If you hear or see anything conspicuous or have further information please let us know via our email. (Janina)
